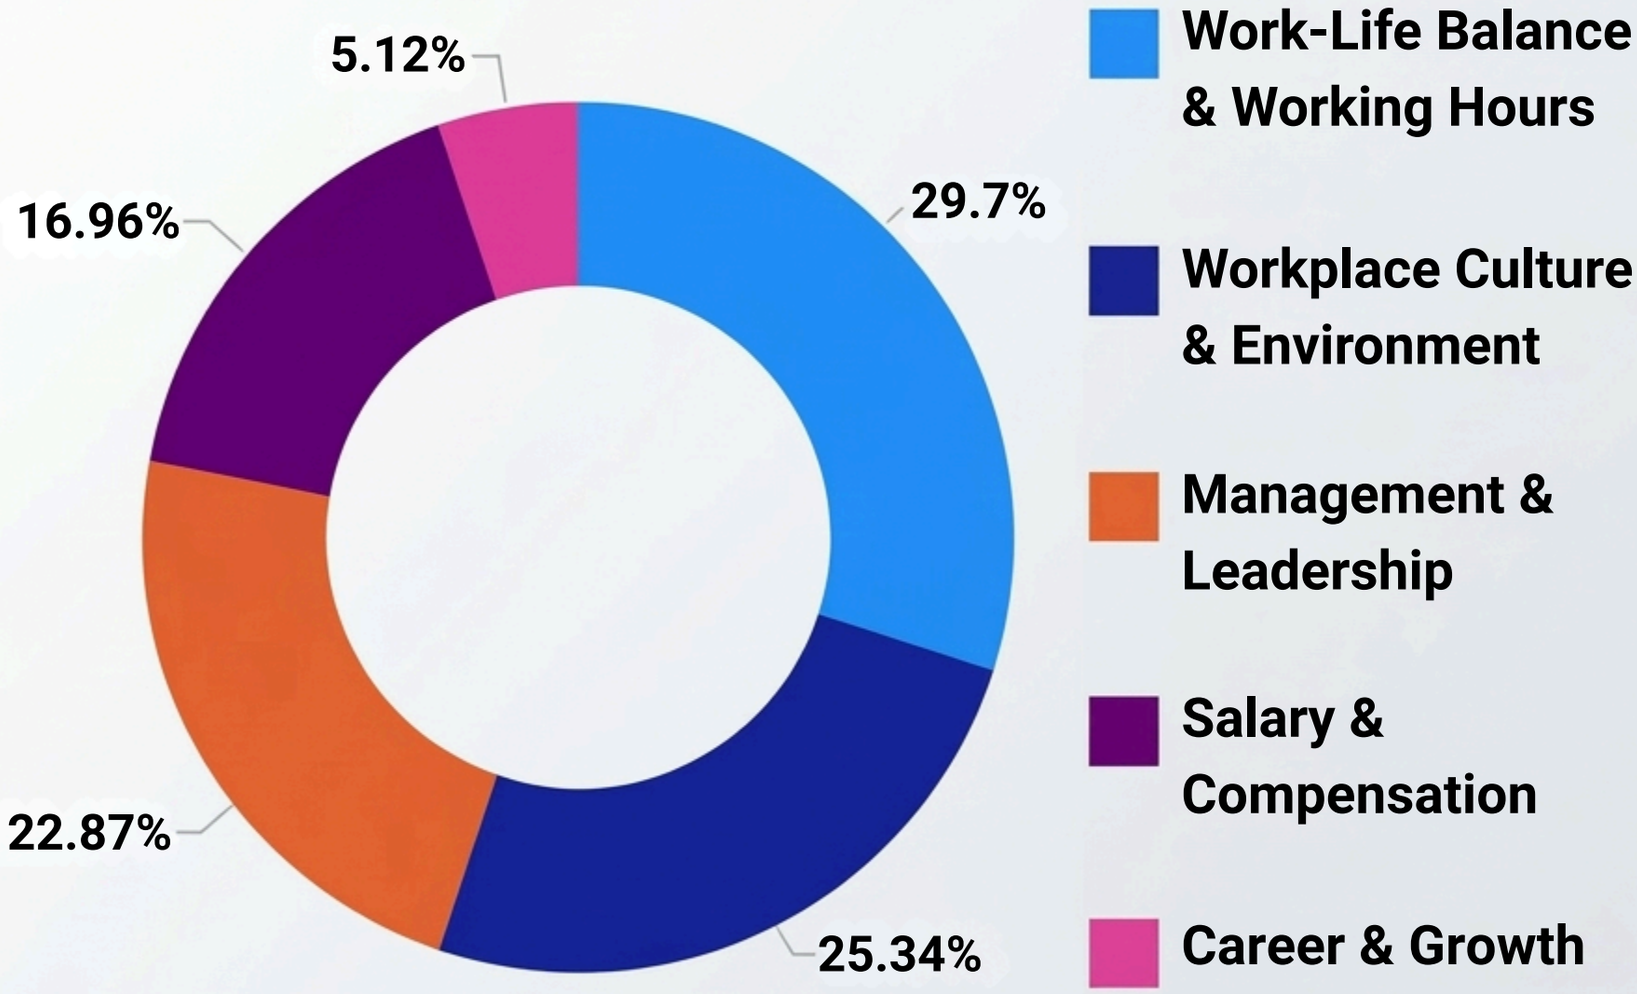
The Truth Behind 800,000 Glassdoor Job Reviews: Why They Stay vs Why They Leave

The most discussed topics in employee feedback: from new hires to 10-year veterans.

Source: Kaggle / David Gauthier

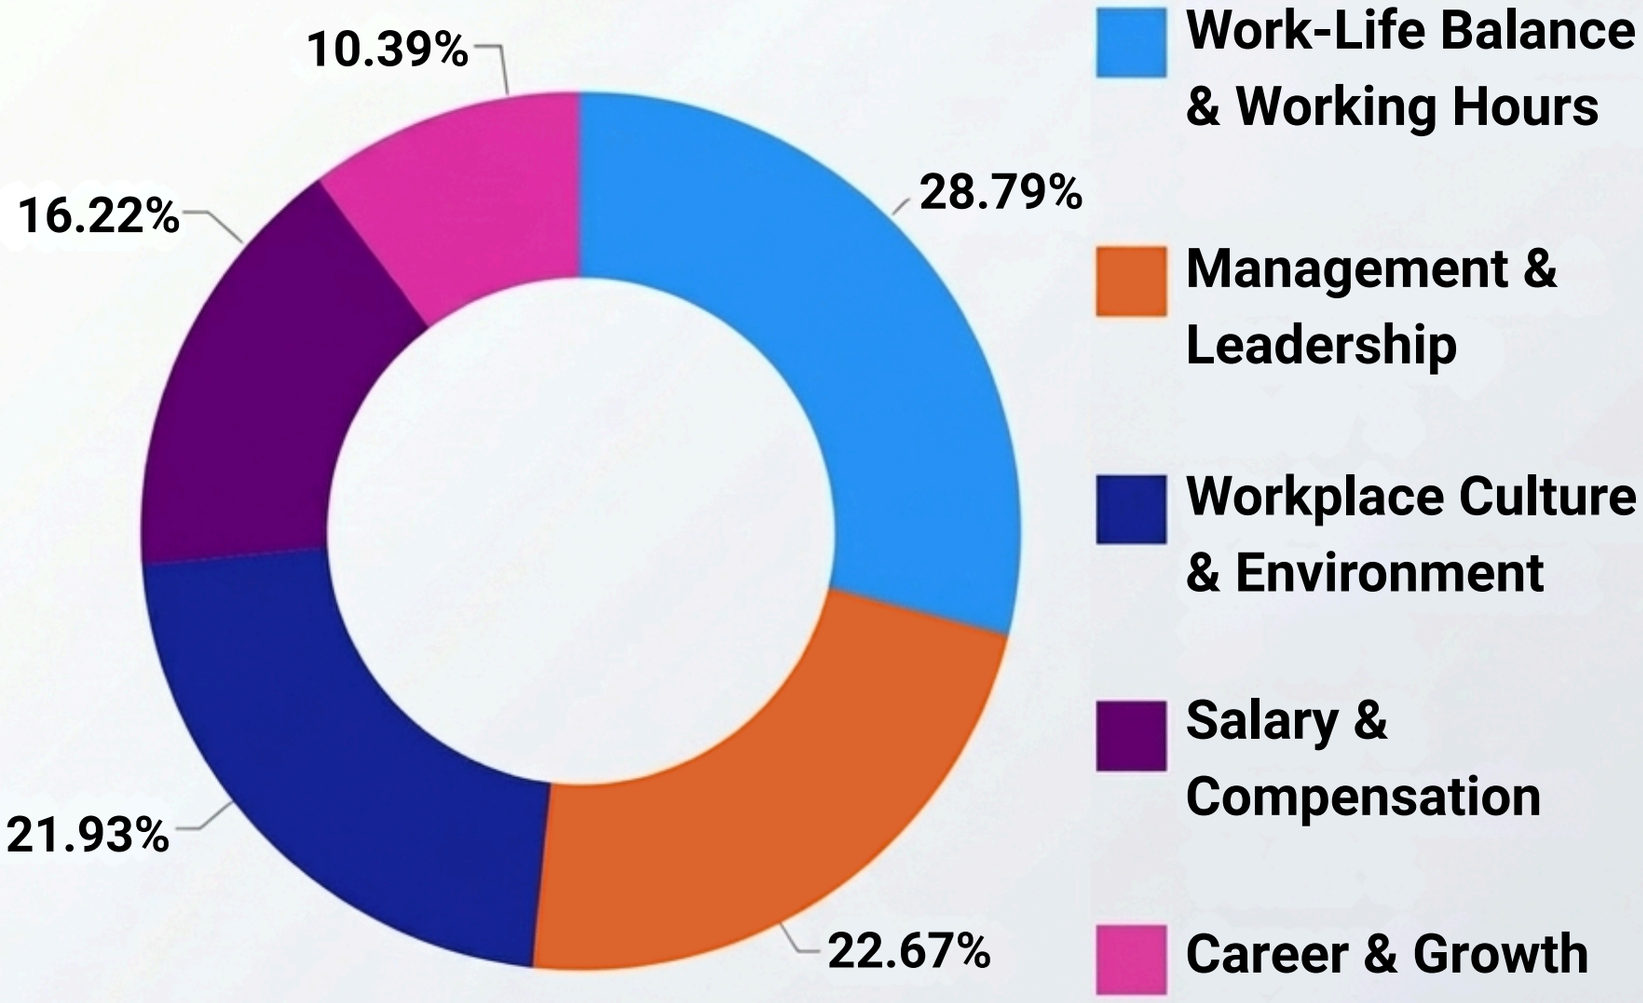
The “Honeymoon” Phase Fails: Why New Hires Quit

Top complaints mentioned from employees leaving within their first year



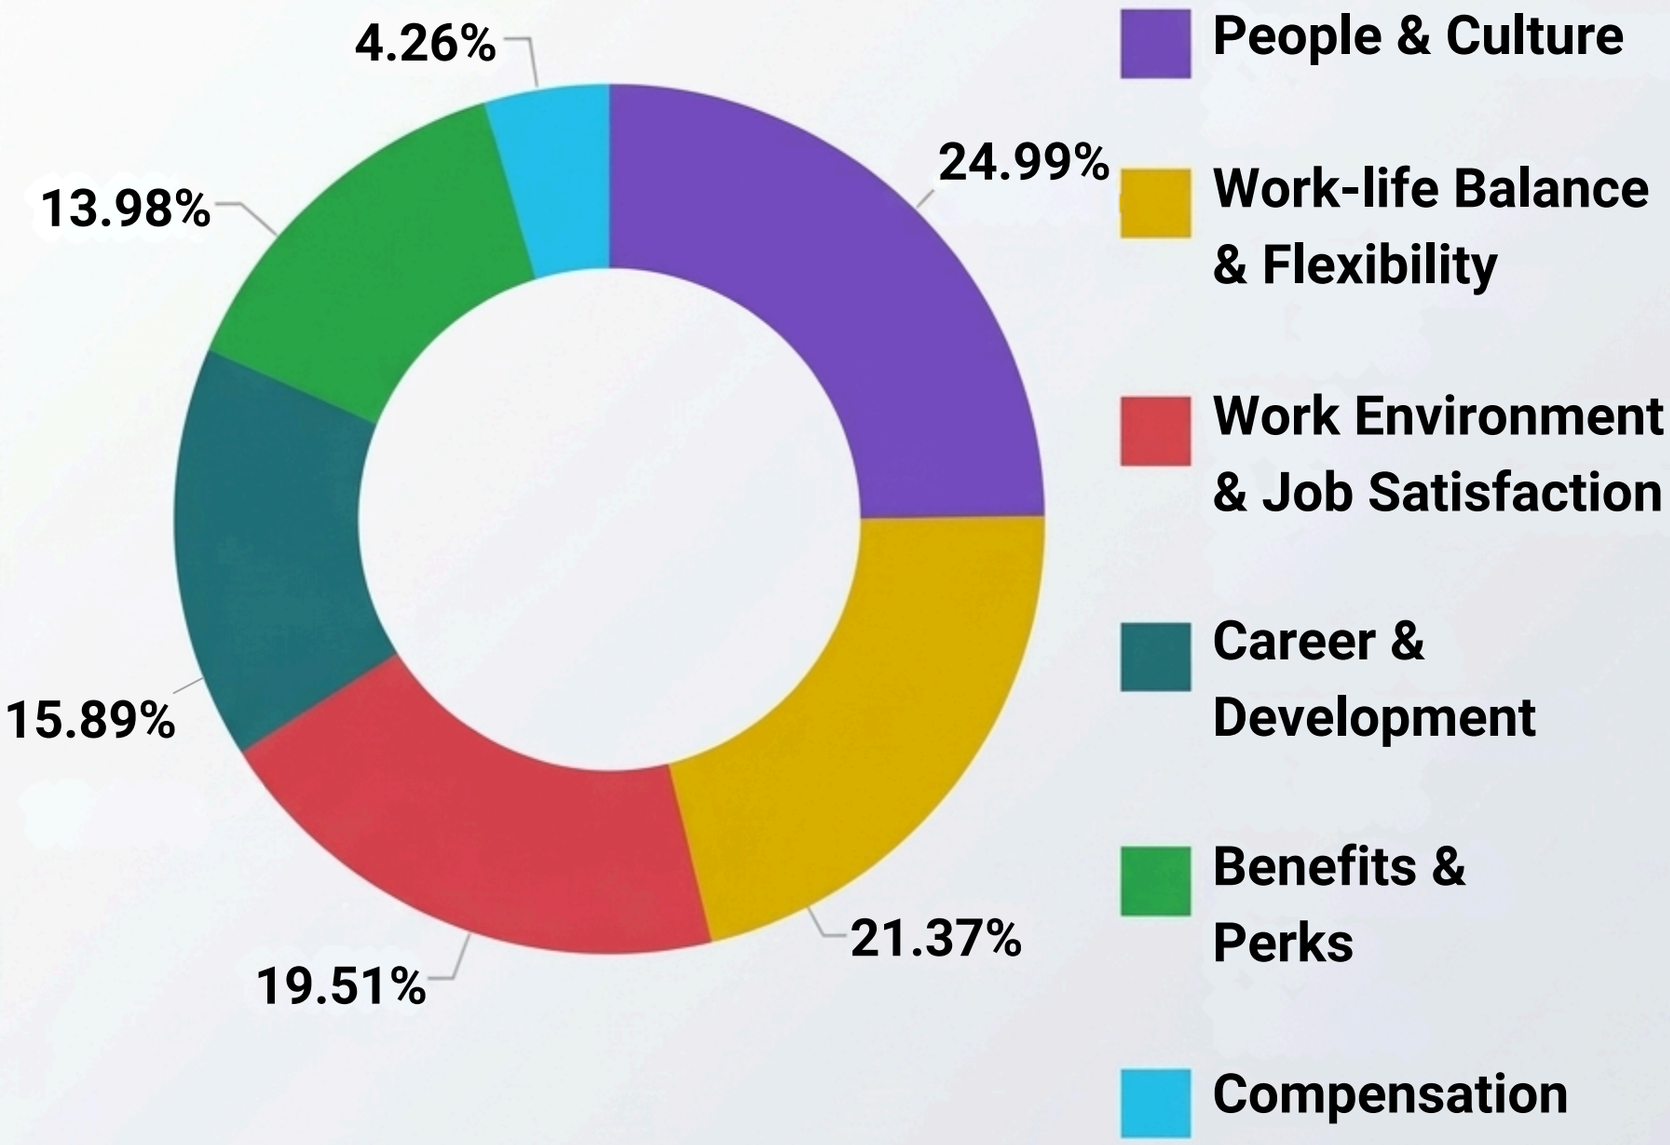
The 3-Year Threshold: Where Company Loyalty Often Breaks

What drives mid-term employees to look for new opportunities?



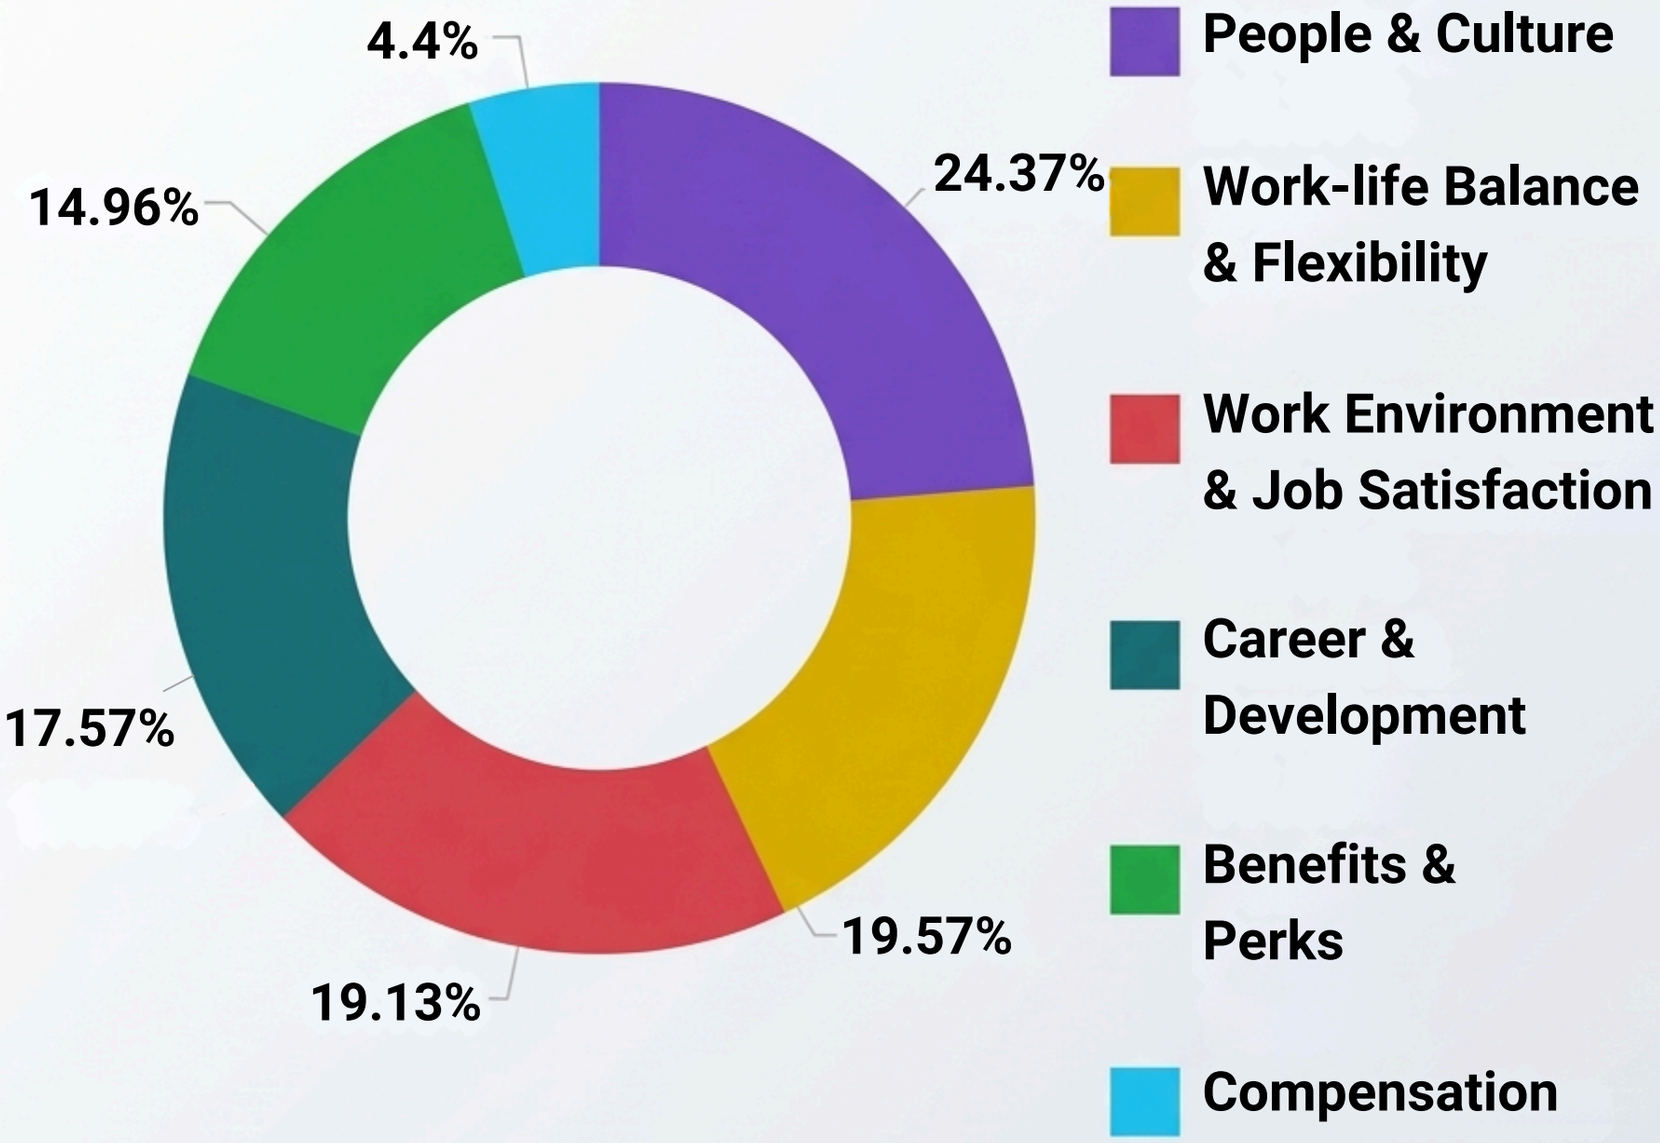
The Secret to Retention: Why They Reach the 5-Year Mark

Top pros mentioned by long-term established employees



Decade of Loyalty: What Keeps Veterans Engaged?

What keeps employees engaged for 10+ years?



"I stay for the people" — Sound familiar?

Year 1: The Deal-Breaker
For new hires, Work-Life Balance and Culture are non-negotiable.

5+ Years: The Anchor
For veterans, people outweigh an optimal work-life balance. Connection is the key.

The Salary Myth
Compensation was the least discussed topic across all segments.